

Shea Labagh Dobberstein has been an independent member of DFK International/USA since January 2012. Our alliance with DFK provides you with additional resources and expertise around the world so that you can take advantage of business opportunities both nationally and globally to help your business expand to its full potential.

DFK International is one of the world’s leading associations of independent accounting, tax and business advisory firms, and brings together strong national firms of public accountants to enable them to provide services of the highest professional standards to their clients. The association has been helping its Member firms meet the needs of clients with international business interests for more than 50 years. Member firms are chosen for the quality of service they provide in terms of both technical competence and service delivery.

DFK International provides co-ordinating and other services to its member firms in connection with such firm’s practices in the fields of accounting, auditing, tax and management advisory services. DFK International does not practice in such fields. Each member firm is independent and is a separate legal, financial and administrative entity, practising under the laws in the country where it is based. Member firms are locally owned, operated and managed and each is responsible for its own liabilities. No single firm is responsible for the services or activities of any other.
