Ronald K. (Ron) Simonian, CPA, is an expert in strategic business and tax consulting, individual tax planning, merger and acquisition consulting, and accounting and auditing. He has been with SLD for more than thirty years and previously worked with a national accounting firm.

Ron works with many nonprofit organizations in the areas of financial reporting, budgetary analysis, tax and legal issues special to that environment. He also has extensive experience providing services to companies in the wholesale and distribution; engineering and architectural; real estate and construction; and food service industries. He is a frequent speaker at Board meetings and events regarding annual reporting issues, tax compliance and other industry issues.

Ron is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the California Society of CPAs. He received a Bachelor's degree in Business Economics, emphasis in Accounting, from the University of California at Santa Barbara.

During his free time, Ron can be found at a sporting event of one of his three children, or coaching baseball or basketball in the San Francisco Peninsula.

Paying attention to and perfecting the process will lead to better outcomes.
