As the accounting manager with SLD COR²E ACCOUNTING SOLUTIONS, Chris Jaffe has extensive experience in team leadership, financial statement preparation and analysis, budgeting, forecasting, and cash flow management.

For the past six years, Chris has been working in the private sector in the areas of construction, consulting, retail and manufacturing. Previously, he was the Controller at ETIC Engineering, where he headed the Accounting and Finance department. There, he was responsible for the company's day to day financial operations, including cash management and cash flow forecasting, and prepared and analyzed all of the company financial statements. Prior to this, Chris worked for Discovery Builders, Inc. as an Accounting Manager, and Finis, Inc. as a Senior Accountant. He began his career in public accounting with Deloitte's San Francisco office.

Chris is a graduate of St. Mary's College, where he earned a B.S. degree in Accounting and a B.A. degree in Economics. He is a Certified QuickBooks Online ProAdvisor.

When he's not working, Chris loves to golf and is a member at Ruby Hill in Pleasanton. He also likes to travel, and get outside and hike. Chris was born in New Jersey and is a diehard New York Mets fan.
