German, Spanish, French, Japanese and Arabic – these are the languages Linda studied before learning to speak debits and credits. As a retail buyer, Linda quickly learned about inventory management, stock turns, and gross margins. While in graduate school, she was a cost accounting instructor at the University of Texas in Austin. In the Bay Area, Linda co-founded a domestic manufacturing firm and built it into a sophisticated, international wholesale business, catering to a wide variety of retailers coast-to-coast. As CFO, Linda personally weathered the common financial challenges of managing a business, such as payroll processing, inventory management, cash flow budgeting, financial reporting and tax filings. Prior to joining SLD, Linda served as CFO and accounting coach to a variety of Bay Area businesses.

Linda earned both an MBA in International Business and a B.A. in German, Summa Cum Laude, from the University of Texas in Austin. She is a graduate of Leadership San Francisco and member of Financial Executives Networking Group (FENG). Linda enjoys traveling and has already been to five continents. She also enjoys water sports and theater.
