Tina Lin, CPA, has experience helping clients resolve business challenges through the use of financial modeling, financial analysis and business processes. She is currently an audit manager on an international shipping and logistics enterprise.

Prior to joining SLD, Tina worked for over four years at Ernst and Young in Taipei, Taiwan. As an Audit Supervisor at E&Y, she led audit teams in engagements with large multinational companies. She also oversaw finances for 40 student organizations while working at Johns Hopkins University's Carey Business School.

Tina graduated with a Master of Business Administration from Carey Business School at Johns Hopkins University. She earned her BBA with a double major in Accounting, and Finance, investment and Banking from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Tina spent a semester in Austria with a study abroad program. She is a Certified Public Accountant licensed in Wisconsin, and a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the California State Society of CPAs.

In her free time, Tina enjoys yoga, traveling and watching football.
