Andrea Killeen, CPA, MST, has 15 years of experience in public accounting, where she's developed an expertise in real estate and other related industries by serving a wide variety of clients, including partnerships, LLCs, small corporations and individuals.

She started her career with Novogradac & Company, LLC in San Francisco. Over the next decade, she worked her way up from Staff Accountant to Partner at Novogradac's San Francisco office. She led the firm in establishing a new practice in cost segregation studies, and consulted with clients on technical tax and attest issues.

Andrea received her Master of Science in Taxation from Golden Gate University. She graduated from the University of California at Santa Barbara with a B.S. in Business Economics, emphasis in Accounting. A Certified Public Accountant, she is currently a member of the American Institute of CPAs.

In the hours away from work, Andrea enjoys touring the Bay Area on her bike, traveling and experimenting with new recipes in the kitchen.
