Michael Nader, as a manager in the COR²E group of SLD, assists businesses in the Bay Area with their financial accounting and management. His experience includes more than thirty years in various accounting, audit and tax roles in the private, public and non-profit sector.

He has served as a controller and CFO of several private construction companies; audit senior and manager of several public accounting firms; manager and director of internal control compliance for several public entities; and even a business owner.

Michael started his career with the firm of Thorne Ernst & Whinney in Montreal, Canada. Over the next few years, he held various positions in public accounting and the private sector. This includes manager of audit at PricewaterhouseCoopers in D.C.

He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Guilford College in Greensboro, NC in 1985 and became a Chartered Accountant (inactive) in Victoria, BC in 1993.

In his free time, Michael loves try new recipes, spend time with his family, and discover new restaurants to try and places to visit.
